

THE PERMIT POST

Your go-to source for trucking, permits, and industry updates.

By Transmit America™

WELCOME TO THE FIRST EDITION OF THE PERMIT POST!

We created this newsletter to keep you informed on state closures, permit regulation updates, and industry news—all in one place.

Our goal is simple: short, valuable updates to help you run your business smoothly. No fluff, no inbox overload—just the information you need.

At Transmit America Permit Network, we know the challenges of oversize and overweight hauling. Whether you need permits, industry resources, or key updates, we're here to help you stay compliant and on the road.

Thanks for being part of our network—we're excited to keep you informed!

INDUSTRY NEWS ROUNDUP

FMCSA Proposes Changes to ELD Regulations

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) is reviewing potential changes to electronic logging device (ELD) regulations. The goal is to streamline compliance and reduce paperwork burdens for carriers and drivers. Stay tuned for updates on what this means for you!

Infrastructure Projects Affecting Oversize Loads

Several states are investing in major bridge and highway improvements, which could impact permitted routes. Key states to watch: Texas, Ohio, and California. If you're hauling oversize loads, be sure to check for updated routing requirements.

Fuel Prices Fluctuating Again

Diesel prices are on the rise in certain regions, adding cost pressures to trucking operations. While some states have seen minor drops, experts predict price volatility through the summer. Keeping an eye on fuel costs can help with better trip planning and budgeting.

STATE CLOSURES REMINDER

The next federal holiday is Memorial Day (Monday, May 27, 2025). Many state permit offices will be closed in observance of the holiday, so be sure to plan ahead for any required oversize/overweight permits.

Truckers Breakroom

Fun Fact!

The largest truck stop in the world is Iowa 80—it has a movie theater, barbershop, and even a dentist!

Jokes!

- ✗ Why did the truck driver sit on his wallet?
Because he liked to keep his cargo secure!
- ✗ Why did the semi-truck start a band?
Because it had great "traction" with the fans!
- ✗ Knock, knock.
Who's there?
Traffic.
Traffic who?
Traffic's backed up again. Might as well retire right here.
